

Updated - January 15, 2012

Privacy Policy Posted to Comply with California's Online Privacy Protection Act

North County School of the Arts

The North County School of the Arts, (NCSA) is highly sensitive to your personal information and it's safety. We take the matter of information privacy seriously and work to keep your information safe.

Please note that your information is never shared or given to anyone or any company outside of the working relationship of the NCSA. To that end, please find the following paragraph posted for your information and knowledge.

The NCSA asks for the following information from it's participants and contacts:

Name - First and Last

Mailing Address - of any immediate family or friends that are directly connected with the family. This information is only used for contact purposes.

Email address: Used for communication and notification.

Phone Numbers: Home and Mobile - for anyone who is listed as a contact for the student.

The Third parties involved with your information are used for record keeping and communication. Those parties are: Jackrabbit Dance and Constant Contact. You can find their privacy policies on their websites.

( www.jackrabbitdance.com/privacysecurity.asp )

( www.constantcontact.com/privacy\_guarantee.jsp )

The NCSA is not responsible for any problems associated with breaches of privacy involving any third parties with whom we do business.

You may review any and all of the information you have input into our system by logging into the Customer Portal and reviewing your account. Constant Contact offers an “Opt-out” option for communications received by the NCSA, and therefore is an option available to everyone with whom the NCSA contacts.

If there is a change in our privacy policy, we will post that change immediately and notate that the policy has been changed by the effective date of the posting of the new policy.

If you feel a need to contact us regarding this policy. please email or call.

Management

North County School of the Arts

Pamela Laurent and Scott Gregory

info@ncsarts.org

760-633-3893